

the sandf

Department:
Defence
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MEDIA INVITATION

DATE: Monday, 04 November 2013

EMBARGO: None

SUBJECT: AIRBORNE REMEMBRANCE DAY WREATH LAYING CEREMONY
AND PARADE: 08 NOVEMBER 2013

On Friday, 08 November 2013, at 09:30, 44 Parachute Regiment will be commemorating the fallen paratroopers at the parade ground in Bloemfontein. The Airborne Remembrance Day is one of the unit traditions that are commemorated annually by the Airborne Regiment.

The main functionary for this event will be the General Officer Commanding of the South African Army Infantry Formation, Major General Lindile Yam.

44 Parachute Regiment will be remembering the fallen comrades who lost their lives during battle, training and other causes while serving with dignity, honour and pride. This year 2013 Remembrance Parade will be commemorated with the unveiling of the granite tombstone for the 15 members that passed on in the Central African Republic.

You are cordially invited to send a journalist/photographer to attend the event at 44 Parachute Regiment in Bloemfontein.

Ends

Issued by: Defence Corporate Communication (Defence Media Liaison)
Pretoria

Enquiries: Captain Vuyiseka Pamla
078 351 8148
051 402 1504