EMBARGO: None

SUBJECT: THE SANDF WARNS OF A JOBS-FOR-MONEY SCAM

The South African National Defence Force (SANDF) takes note of media reports on the alleged jobs for money scam involving 300 young prospective job seekers.

The SANDF does not utilise individuals, groups or groupings to recruit. The SANDF strongly condemns activities aimed at deliberately misleading members of the public regarding recruitment into the SANDF. Members of the public are encouraged to report such activities or any people who solicit money from them with the promise of securing employment in the SANDF to the nearest South African Police Service station or SANDF base or station.

Furthermore, the SANDF reiterates that there is no integration into the SANDF following parliament's promulgation of the Termination of Integration Intake Act of 2001 and the Demobilisation Amendment Act of 2001 that formally and legally brought the integration process to an end on 31 December 2002.

Ends.
